

PUBLIC HEALTH IN ACTION

The Affordable Care Act and Medicaid expansion in PA and state by state

How is the ACA being implemented? This lecture will provide a status report, seeking to provide some key metrics, demystify lingering areas of controversy, and update us on the evolving health insurance landscape in Pennsylvania and other states. Featuring:

Heather Howard, JD is a Lecturer in Public Affairs at Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School and Director of the State Health Reform Assistance Network, a Robert Wood Johnson Foundation initiative providing technical assistance to states implementing the Affordable Care Act. She served as New Jersey's Commissioner of Health and Senior Services from 2008-2010, overseeing a cabinet-level agency with a budget of $3.5 billion and staff of 1,700, responsible for public health services, regulation of health care institutions, senior services, and health care policy and research.

David Grande, MD MPA is an Assistant Professor of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania and Senior Fellow and Co-Director of Policy at the Leonard Davis Institute of Health Economics. He conducts research focused on health care for vulnerable populations and has led initiatives to improve access to care locally.
