

Creative Action

The Arts in Public Health

Trauma, Trash, and Triumph

Images from the Health of Philadelphia Photo-documentation Project

Exhibit open November 5th-20th @ Fox Art Gallery, Claudia Cohen Hall, 249 South 36th Street

Is Philadelphia a HEALTHY place to live?

In images and words, Philadelphians investigate their neighborhoods, their city, their lives.

They illuminate the path to health and obstacles along the way.

November 5th @ 12pm

A Lunchtime Discussion

with Carolyn C. Cannuscio, ScD
Assistant Professor
Family Medicine & Community Health

PLEASE RSVP: jpschroe@upenn.edu
Lunch will be provided

Location: Terrace Room,
Claudia Cohen Hall, 249 South 36th St

Photograph by: Elias Friedman

Photograph by: HOPPP Participant

A bed is nestled into the outside corner of a building (top). A few months later, the 'home' is gone. KEEP OUT! is painted on the wall (bottom).

