

Creative Action

The Arts in Public Health

Visual Legal Advocacy & the Creative Use of Video by Law Students

Regina Austin

William A. Schnader Professor of Law, Penn Law

October 7th @ 4:00p

Class of 1962 Auditorium, John Morgan Building
3620 Hamilton Walk

Regina Austin is a leading authority on economic discrimination and minority legal feminism. Her work on the overlapping burdens of race, gender, and class oppression, recognized for its insight and creativity, has been widely reprinted. She is also director of the Penn Program on Documentaries & the Law. In addition to making extensive use of documentaries in her traditional courses, Austin teaches a visual legal advocacy seminar in which the students make short videos on behalf of actual public interest clients.

RSVP at cphi@pobox.upenn.edu

Directions to location to be sent upon request. **

