2019 CPHI Summer Institute on GIS and Public Health

June 12-14, 2019  ●  Center for Public Health Initiatives  ●  www.cphi.upenn.edu

Course Director: Amy Hillier, PhD, MSW

Wednesday, June 12  Thursday, June 13  Friday, June 14

Morning Lecture: Biomedical Research Building (BRB), Rooms 251 & 253, 421 Curie Blvd.

9:00-10:30  Course Overview and Introductions  Food Access  GIS, the Environment, and Health Behaviors: Lessons from the Study of Addiction

Amy Hillier  Amy Hillier  Jeremy Mennis
Penn School of Design  Penn School of Design  Temple University

10:30-10:45  Break  Break  Break

10:45-12:00  Impacting Public Health Policy and Programming in Philadelphia with GIS  Measuring Activities Over Location and Time  GIS and Place-Based Strategies for Health

Amory Hillengas  Doug Wiebe  Eugenia South
Philadelphia Department of Public Health  Penn School of Medicine  Penn Department of Emergency Medicine

12:00-1:00  Lunch Break  Lunch Break  Lunch Break

Afternoon Lab: Perelman Center for Political Science and Economics, UDAL Room 201, 133 S 36th St.

1:00-4:00  ArcView GIS 10 hands-on training

4:00-5:00  Individual technical assistance and lab time

Building Directions

Biomedical Research Building (BRB), Rooms 251 & 253
BRB is located at 421 Curie Blvd, at the intersection of Curie Blvd and Osler Circle. Enter through the revolving doors on Curie Blvd or the revolving door at the courtyard area on Osler Circle. Take the steps or elevator to the 2nd floor. Signs will direct you to the classroom.

Perelman Center for Political Science and Economics, UDAL Room 201
The PCPSE is located at 133 S 36th St, at the intersection of 36th & Walnut Streets. Enter on the western face of the building on 36th St. Take the steps to the 2nd floor and turn right at the top of the steps or take the elevator, again, making a right. Signs will direct you down the hallway to the classroom on the right.

Contact: Nick Van Meter
[t] 215-573-3439  [e] nickvm@pennmedicine.upenn.edu