Wednesday, June 14

Morning Lecture: Claire M. Fagin Hall, Room 203, 418 Curie Blvd.

9:00-10:30 Course Overview and Introductions
Amy Hillier
Penn School of Design

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45-12:00 A Population Based Approach to Measuring Emergency Care Outcomes
Brendan Carr
Thomas Jefferson University

12:00-1:00 Lunch Break

Thursday, June 15

Morning Lecture: Claire M. Fagin Hall, Room 203, 418 Curie Blvd.

9:00-10:30 GIS, the Environment, and Health Behaviors: Lessons from the Study of Addiction
Jeremy Mennis
Temple University

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45-12:00 Impacting Public Health Policy and Programming in Philadelphia with GIS
Amory Hillengas
Philadelphia Department of Public Health

12:00-1:00 Lunch Break

Friday, June 16

Morning Lecture: Claire M. Fagin Hall, Room 203, 418 Curie Blvd.

9:00-10:30 Measuring Activities Over Location and Time
Doug Wiebe
Penn School of Medicine

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45-12:00 Food Access
Amy Hillier
Penn School of Design

12:00-1:00 Lunch Break

Afternoon Lab: Undergraduate Data Analysis Laboratory (UDAL), 108 McNeil Building, 3718 Locust Walk

1:00-4:00 ArcView GIS 10 hands-on training

4:00-5:00 Individual technical assistance and lab time

Classroom Directions

Claire M. Fagin Hall, Room 203
The Claire M. Fagin Hall, School of Nursing is located at 418 Curie Blvd. The cross-streets are Guardian Drive/Service Drive and Curie Blvd. Enter through the main entrance and take the elevator to the 2nd floor. Signs will direct you to the classroom.

Undergraduate Data Analysis Laboratory (UDAL), 108 McNeil Building
The McNeil Building is located at 37th and Locust Walk. Locust Walk is between Walnut and Spruce streets. Enter on Locust Walk and proceed to room 108. Signs will direct you to the classroom.